

LOAD HEAVY WINS IN STRAIGHT HEATS

Captures $10,000 Empire State Stake—Marigold Wins 2:16 Trot.

Syracuse, N. Y., September 9.—Lord Dewey, a bay stallion owned by Dr. J. C. McCoy, of Kirkwood, Del., and driven by Ray Snedeker, to-day won the $10,000 Empire State Stake for 2:14 trotters, the feature race of the Grand Circuit, meeting at the State Fair Grounds, after a hard battle. Tenera, the leading money winner of the season, showed very lame, and was drawn after three heats. The first two heats were won handsily by Lord Dewey. He was beaten in the third by Star Winter. The M. & M. winner Reusens, who had been very unsteady in the first three heats, won the next two. As the race was tied to five heats, Lord Dewey was declared the winner.

The 2:16 trot had but four starters, and was won in straight heats by Marigold, driven by Tom Murphy. Ben Zolock, won the 2:10 trot. Summaries:

"A Thousand Miles In An Instant"

What the swift passenger express is to the person, the telephone is to the voice--and the thought it conveys. A thought train travels the telephone wires hundreds of times faster than the swiftest express.

You can sit in your office and send your thought--project your personality--into thousands of cities. By the magic of the telephone you can create instant action a thousand miles away.

Why not stay at your desk and let your mind travel over the telephone lines? You can double your ability if you do business by telephone.

STORM DESTROYS MARINE AIRSHIP

Fifteen Persons Are Believed to Have Lost Their Lives.

Berlin, September 9.—A German marine airship was destroyed this evening in a hurricane, eighteen miles north of Heligoland.

Torpedo boats were immediately dispatched to the scene and rescued seven of the crew. Fifteen others are reported missing, and it is almost certain they perished, as the airship remained afloat for not more than one hour.

Among those who lost their lives were Captain Metzger, commander of the marine airship division; Captain Hanno, commander of the wrecked airship, and Baron von Maltzahn. The hurricane came on so suddenly it was impossible for the commander to reach a landing.

Has Narrow Escape. Carmel, Ill., September 9.—Tony Jannus, aviator, had a narrow escape here this afternoon, when the carburetor of his motor came off while the biplane was 500 feet in the air.

As the motor was in front of the aviator, the gasoline streamed back on Jannus. Fearing the acroplane would catch fire, Jannus shut off the motor, and, vaulting sharply, landed in a meadow.

Druschin Is Killed. Sebastopol, Russia, September 9.—The military aviator, Druschin, fell to-day while making a flight, and was instantly killed.

Must Fight for His Life. Lynchburg, Va., September 9.—John Jamerson, who murdered his wife in the suburbs of Lynchburg several weeks ago, will be tried for his life Thursday at Rustburg in the Circuit Court of Campbell County. It is understood that the plea of the condemned man will be that he did not intend to kill his wife.

Confess to Robbery. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., September 9.—Paul Jacobs and Edward Barrington, white youths, yesterday pleaded guilty in the Circuit Court at Rustburg to the charge of robbing the Southern depot at Lawry's and at Evinston, and they were remanded to jail for sentence later during the term.

O'Brien—Criss. Lynchburg, Va., September 9.—An impressive marriage was celebrated this morning at 6 o'clock at the Holy Cross Catholic Church, when Miss Mary Regina Criss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Criss, was married to Edwin Hannon O'Brien, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. E. M. Kearney.

The bride was attired in a blue tulle suit, and she carried bride roses. Miss Annie Hughes, of Staunton, was maid of honor, and the ushers were George B. Fazzl, Casper Coleman and Thomas D. May.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien went for a trip to Norfolk, Richmond, Washington and Northern cities, after which they will return here to live.

Goes to Naval Academy. Lynchburg, Va., September 9.—Don Moses, son of William Moses of Appomattox Courthouse, has been named a cadet to the Naval Academy from the Tenth Congressional District by Congressman H. D. Flood. The appointee is a graduate with first honors from the Appomattox High School, and won his appointment in a competitive examination.

Callahan—Callahan. Lynchburg, Va., September 9.—An interesting marriage took place here this morning at 312 Madison Street, when Miss Susie Callahan was married to Frank Weston Callahan. The celebrants were Rev. Wallace T. Palmer, D. D., of Westminster Presbyterian Church, and Rev. C. S. Akers, an uncle of the bride, of Fairfield. The bride was given away by her aunt, Mrs. W. C. Coleman. Miss Nancy Evans, of Concord, was maid of honor. After a trip to Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Callahan will return here, where he is engaged in mercantile business.

"BIG TIM" SULLIVAN ELUDES HIS GUARDS

Missing for Week, Relatives Fear Harm Has Be-fallen Him.

New York, September 9.—Representative Timothy D. Sullivan, nicknamed "Big Tim" by the East Side, has been missing a week. He disappeared at 2 o'clock last Tuesday morning from the country home of his brother in Williams Bridge, eluding his guards while they slept, and no trace of him has been discovered since. His relatives fear that he has met with harm. He had but $1 when he got away.

"Big Tim" had a nervous breakdown after the last election, and in consequence never took his seat in Congress. Instead he was placed in a sanatorium. The courts judged him incompetent to manage his estate of several millions, and a committee of four was appointed to take charge of his person and affairs.

Men Hired to Guard Him. After a trip to Europe the Representative was taken to his brother's home and three men were hired to guard him. He slipped away, however, one night about a month ago and revisited his haunts on the East Side. Friends recognized him, and he was under surveillance again within a few hours.

On the evening of September 1 "Big Tim" played cards with his guards till after midnight. Two of them fell asleep and the third followed suit about 2 o'clock. When this guard awoke, he found himself and his two sleeping comrades in the room. A quiet search was begun, but without results.

"Big Tim" was born in 1862, and started life as a newsboy.

YALE WILL MEET WILLIAMS TEAM

Intercollegiate Golf Championship to Be Decided at Hunt-don Club To-Day.

Noble, September 9.—Yale and Williams to-morrow will play for the Intercollegiate golf championship at the Huntingdon Valley Club. This result was determined to-day by Williams' victory over Cornell and the elimination yesterday of Princeton by Yale. Williams defeated Cornell eight matches to one, while the Blue players only won their way into the final five matches to four. Last year Williams and Yale also met in the final, and the Blue players won.

Ayers' Debut Is Impressive

Doctor Vanece Wyatt Ayers made his debut in the big league yesterday, when Manager Clark Griffith, of the Nationals, gave him an opportunity to show in the second game against the Naps, after the game was sewed up, the score standing 5 to 1, in favor of the Wilburs. It was not until Edwin Hill, pitcher, had struck out the last batter, that Ayers was called to the mound. While three hits and one run are credited against him, two of the hits were of the duckiest variety, and in large measure due to the slant of the sun's rays. On top of the grandstand at the American League Park in Washington, is an aviator to protect the players from the sun during the late afternoon. Some one forgot to lower the shade, and until Captain George McElride called to the bench giving the order it was not done. Edwin Hill, pitcher, who was umpiring on the bases, had to shade his eyes with his hands to see the ball. Foster, on third for the Nationals, was nearly blinded, and Ayers was unable to see the signals of his catcher. It was while working under this disadvantage that the hits and run were made. After the awning was lowered, the doctor struck out the heavy-hitting Johnston, caused the next man to pop to Mueller and then struck out the third man. After the game Clark Griffith said that he really believed he had a find in Ayers, and Edwin Hill Kahoe was willing to admit that Ayers had improved wonderfully. Altogether, Doc Ayers broke into the majors with colors flying.
